

What Is Natural? Wood Products Matter Cycle #2

Explanation: The earth's resources (soil, air, water) provide the nutrients for seed growth. Seeds germinate into plants. Adult plants will reproduce, continuing the cycle of plant growth. Hornets manufacture plants into paper for their nest. Wood products decompose and/or break down returning to the earth's resources once again.

Examples: bald-faced hornet nest, paper wasp nest