

What Is Natural?

Wood Products Matter Cycle #1

Explanation: The earth's resources (soil, air, water) provide the nutrients for seed growth. Seeds germinate into plants. Adult plants will reproduce, continuing the cycle of plant growth. We manufacture plants into various products. Wood products decompose and/or break down returning to the earth's resources once again.

Examples: paper, cardboard, lumber, furniture, pencil